IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CONTEMPT PETITION NO.53 OF 2004

Shri Ramakant Kothawale & Ors. .. Petitioners Vs.
The Charity Commissioner & Ors. .. Respondents
--

Shri D.R.Dhiver for the petitioners.

Shri A.H.Palekar, AGP for respondent Nos.1 and 2.
--

CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED : 21st December, 2004.

P.C.

. The learned AGP for the respondent Nos.1 and 2 states that the elections have already been held subsequent to the order passed by this Court and being so, there is absolutely no substance in the grievance of the petitioners. Undoubtedly, the orders were in relation to the preparation of the voters' list and once the elections are already concluded, the learned AGP is justified in saying that there cannot be any substance in the grievance of the petitioners in relation to the non-compliance of the order. Obviously, the orders were in relation to the situation prior to the elections and once the elections are held, if there is any grievance in that regard, the petitioners have to file a petition challenging the the elections. Being so, there is no case made out for proceeding against the respondents for contempt of Court. The petition is therefore rejected.
